

Introducing UDS Enterprise

How can VDI with UDS Enterprise help?

Desktop and application virtualization will help you simplify the management of your IT infrastructure to the maximum, as well as increase the security of corporate information and provide substantial cost savings, especially in the acquisition and maintenance of computers. Users of your organization will gain freedom and mobility, as they will be able to access all their tools from anywhere, at any time and using any type of device.

With UDS Enterprise you will enjoy all these benefits, in addition to being able to take full advantage of its interesting features and functionalities:

- Automatic deployment and management of the life cycle of Windows and Linux VDI and vApp.
- Supports multiple virtualization platforms, authenticators and connection protocols simultaneously.
- Supports on-premise, public, private, hybrid and DaaS cloud environments.
- High availability and load balancing at no additional cost.
- Task programming and access to calendar-based services.
- Advanced monitoring, usage reports and statistics in real time.
- Open Source based: 100% customizable both at technical and image levels.
- Without licenses: Subscriptions including personalized support and updates.
- Flat Rate from 351 users.
- ...

With UDS Enterprise you get a flexible environment, adapted to your needs, making sure to keep all your devices protected and updated in the easiest, fastest way and guaranteeing business continuity.

MORE INFORMATION

Remote working with UDS Enterprise

Secure teleworking: VDI & remote access with UDS Enterprise

The Covid-19 pandemic has imposed a new reality, in which work and teaching from home have become the only way for companies and educational centers to ensure continuity. UDS Enterprise allows to implement an efficient and secure remote working system quickly and easily.

With this VDI broker, the IT department can decide the way that best suits their needs to allow work from home: enable access to Windows and Linux virtual desktops and applications or to physical devices located in offices. In both cases, employees can use any device to connect at any time and from any place.

UDS Enterprise will also help you simplify the management of your IT infrastructure to the maximum, as well as increase the security of corporate information and provide substantial cost savings, especially in the acquisition and maintenance of computers.

You will get a flexible environment, adapted to your needs, making sure to keep all your devices protected and updated in the easiest, fastest way and guaranteeing business continuity.

MORE INFORMATION

